RJW LOGISTICS GROUP IS RECOGNIZED FOR GREEN SUPPLY CHAIN LEADERSHIP

Company Receives Supply & Demand Chain Executive's 2021 Green Supply Chain Award

WOODRIDGE, IL (December 20, 2021) – RJW Logistics Group, Inc. (“RJW” or the “Company”), a leading provider of retail logistics solutions for consumer-packaged goods companies, announced today that it has received Supply & Demand Chain Executive's (SDCE) Green Supply Chain Award. This award recognizes companies that prioritize sustainability to be a core part of their supply chain strategy, as well as providers of supply chain solutions that further their customers’ sustainability goals.

RJW’s strategic commitment to cultivate business practices that minimize its footprint empowers customers to reduce their impact and achieve a greener supply chain. From RJW’s one-inventory strategy to its retail consolidation program, suppliers benefit from eliminating redundancies, reduced overall operational costs and increased scorecard performance. Through its partnership with the EPA SmartWay Transport Program, RJW reduces carbon emissions, decreases diesel fuel consumption and improves freight transportation efficiency. As a LEED-certified company, RJW equips its state-of-the-art facilities with processes that drive supply chain sustainability to produce a greater return on logistics investment.

“We value this recognition as we continue to embed resiliency and adaptability into every facet of our organization,” said Kevin Williamson, CEO. “This award spotlights RJW’s dedication to driving sustainability efforts forward for our customers while setting industry standards.”
